electronic monitoring for 180 days, pay restitution in the amount of $3,000, provide access to financial information, maintain a single checking account for all financial transactions, provide information about any business interests, and disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation office.

In an application dated April 28, 2008 (Dkt. 793), U.S. Probation Officer Christopher S. Luscher alleged the following violations of the conditions of probation:

- 1. Associating with a known felon and fugitive, Cung Nguyen, without permission of the probation office, on or before March 3, 2008, in violation of standard condition number nine.
- 2. Failing to notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by law enforcement, on or before March 3, 2008, in violation of standard condition number 11.
- 3. Failing to submit a truthful and complete written report to the U.S. Probation Officer within the first five days of each month, for the months of February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, and December 2007, and January, February and March 2008, in violation of standard condition number two.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to her constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted alleged violations 1 and 3 and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred. Defendant denied alleged violation 2 and requested an evidentiary hearing before Judge Robart. (Dkt. 808.)

I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated her probation as alleged in violations 1 and 3, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition, and an
